Broadjam Member Newsletter: 9-07-06, #375

Dear Broadjam Member,

Hey, why take life so seriously? Let's chill out and laugh out loud with this week's featured comedic musicians. These guys are able to put a funny spin on the everyday - life, love, and money - and best of all, in perfect harmony. So stop stressing and allow the following artists to show you how life can be one big joke!

But first be sure to check out ILIO's S.A.G.E. Xpanders, provided as prizes in the Broadjam 2006-Pack Competition.

6-Pack Sponsor: ILIO

S.A.G.E. (Spectrasonics Advanced Groove Engine) Xpanders

Enhance the variety of choices for the newly released Stylus RMX virtual groove instrument. S.A.G.E. Xpanders on DVD-ROM are based on award-winning collections from Spectrasonics and can be easily added to Stylus RMX's already massive core library. All S.A.G.E. Xpanders include a special bonus section, which has hundreds of interesting grooves from Spectrasonics' Vocal Planet, Bizarre Guitar and Distorted Reality libraries.

ARTIST: Mark Nutter
Los Angeles, California
United States

Mark Nutter writes comedy songs in a variety of styles including swing, country, lounge, and show tunes. He also produces recordings with his partner Domenic Bucci. Currently, Nutter plays keyboard and performs with the critically acclaimed comedy ensemble, The Bicycle Men. Nutter wrote the songs for the Off Broadway musical, "Wild Men" and has also written for television hits such as "Saturday Night Live," "3rd Rock from the Sun," as well as numerous feature films.

"I Love You (But...)" is a hysterically bitter tune of love gone wrong. Describing the monotonous, tedious, exhaustive aspects of a relationship, Nutter begins each line with a romantic cliché - what he's supposed to say - then truly speaks his mind.

"Hilarious! Nice singing voice, and it's even danceable. Me likey!"

ARTIST: Emerald Rose
Dahlonega, Georgia
United States

Emerald Rose is a four-man Celtic folk rock band with a rich, original "world fusion" sound with influences ranging from the Chieftains to Jethro Tull. Blending chorus vocals, pennywhistle, Irish pipes, world percussion, driving guitars and bass, their music ranges from traditional jigs and reels to original folk rock and pop numbers. Many of the band's musical themes draw from Celtic myth and legend, but their style is modern, upbeat, and accessible.

Emerald Rose offers a simple antidote to Mark Nutter's problem: "If you value your freedom keep a bachelor's life!" "Bachelor's Life" is a song every man should listen to before his wedding day; if not to learn a valuable lesson, then at least to overcome cold feet with some laughs.

"Goofy, unrefined, and with good intentions. I love this song, it really makes you smile."

ARTIST: The Rock Hards
Brisbane, Australia

The Rock Hards are a cosmic coincidence -four members, four zodiacs of the Taurus. Well on their path of evolution from primordial ooze to enlightenment and with the "force" on their side, they stand upright and in an erect service to the infinite. For The Rock Hards, it all comes down to one simple motto: "life rocks, laugh hard."

Their song, "Bankrupt," is a hilarious take on receiving news that you're broke. Instead of getting down, they sing in utter joy that at least they weren't scammed out of their money. Optimism, cynicism, honesty, and hilarity, this song has it all.

"Really funny, lots of hooks, and good musicianship."
